The Tobacco Fair!

ANOTHER GREAT SUCCESS!

Were Many Visitors and a Big Display of Samples.

LIST OF THE PREMIUMS AWARDED.

The Second Annual Tobacco Fair of Maysville has passed into history as a splendid success.

Notwithstanding the cold and uninviting weather, all trains brought big crowds, and the good old town took on a holiday appearance.

At the courthouse.

Colonel Abner Hord of Wedona presided over the meeting at the Courthouse at 10:30, and in taking the chair gave some sterling advice to the farmers, advising them to quit fighting the Trusts—the Trusts will take care of themselves, and it was the duty of the farmers to take care of themselves.

Mr. Henry Lloyd was Secretary of this meeting.

President John Daley of the Board of Trade made a few remarks, begging the people to indulge in less of politics and more of business.

Mr. Henry Lloyd was called, as was also Mr. Scott Osborne, who suggested a plan for a Tobacco Factory at Maysville, by stock subscriptions of $50 a share, no man to own more than ten shares.

Mr. Henry Lloyd indulged in a few remarks in which he congratulated the farmers on coming together in an effort to combine for their common benefit. He fully agreed that Kentucky had indulged too much of politics and too little of business, and now was the time for our people to join in an effort to keep our young men at home and to provide employment and business for them.

Mr. L. W. Galbraith spoke in favor of a Tobacco Factory in Maysville, contending that it would be beneficial not only to the grower, but to the manufacturer as well.

Hon. Thomas M. Scott of Ghent, the speaker of the day, made a well-timed and wholesome address on the value of the independent tobacco factory as the salvation of the grower and the warehouseman, as it constitutes the only competitor to the Trust.

Mr. Scott proved a most pleasing speaker, and his words were received with much appreciation.

Following Mr. Scott, Mr. Thomas A. Davis was called, and at the close of his remarks the meeting adjourned.

AT THE OPERA-HOUSE.

It was considerably after the appointed hour when the curtain went up at the Opera-house, revealing one of the most representative assemblies of business men ever gathered in the city, while the stage was comfortably filled by visitors from Cincinnati, Louisville and the adjacent counties of Kentucky and Ohio.

The program was opened with an invocation by the Rev. Howard T. Cree of the Christian Church.

After a selection by the Maysville Orchestra, which discoursed sweet music throughout the entire program, the Hon. John P. McCartney of Flemingsburg delivered an address of welcome, being followed by Hon. James N. Kehoe of this city, who presented as a business proposition the urgency of a tobacco factory in Maysville, appealing to the farmers of the county to subscribe liberally to such an enterprise.

Several who had been given a place on the program were represented by letters of regret, but Colonel Sam H. Stone of Louisville made a clever talk in response to urgent calls.

After the sale of the tobacco, etc., came the distribution of the premiums to the successful competitors, as follows:

D. Hechinger & Co.

We were correct when we said a while since that we did not intend having dull January and February business. To be sure there is no profit, in fact in many instances there are losses on our sales; but we have always had a great weakness to close out one season's stock before the next season comes in, hence our stock is always fresh and new.

There still must be a good many people who have not availed themselves of securing "our kind" of Clothing!

At the Cut Prices we are now selling at.

Why not come in and buy an Ulster or Overcoat at a price that will save you at least one-third of the money you will have to pay for it next winter? What an excellent opportunity now to buy a Stein-Boker or Adler Suit, medium weight, one that you can wear nine months out of the twelve, and buy it for less money than you buy ordinary goods for.

We will be benefited in turning these goods into money, but you will be vastly more benefited in buying them. Were we addicted to fake advertising that so many clothing men resort to, viz. the fellows who advertise $10 suits for $3.98, we would embellish more. The truth needs no embellishment. You know we only advertise and sell "straight goods."

DOCTOR McCORMACK, the State Board of Health, and the State Board of Health Doctor McCORMACK, is now working the smallpox industry in the mountain counties.

PROFESSIONAL politicians are professional liars as well. The latter accomplishment appears to have become necessary to success in modern politics, especially in Kentucky. No one is lying but confined to the high positions of Constables or Magistrates, but it has descended to Congressmen—and even to so-called Governors.

Following his pronouncement that Pugilists JEFFRIES and RUSSELL would not be permitted to batter one another in the state of Kentucky, J. C. W. BECKHAM, ad interim Governor of Kentucky, has issued his full and gracious pardon to another pugilist, CHARLES SLUSHER, for assaulting Dr. D. T. SMITH, an elderly and respected citizen of Louisville.

A jury of twelve good men of Louisville had decided that SLUSHER, to this assault, should spend six months at hard labor in the Workhouse and pay a fine of $25. Judge BARKER overruled a motion for a new trial.

"The assault was an outrage. If I had been on the jury I would have agreed with it," said the fearless Judge from the Bench.

But the confidence which SLUSHER felt throughout was not misplaced. He expected Mr. BECKHAM to come to his rescue, and he has come with a promptitude worthy of a good cause.

SLUSHER's offense was committed at the November election of 1899. Dr. D. T. SMITH went to the polls at Jackson and Jefferson streets in Louisville to serve Judge TONEY's mandate that Brown Inspectors be admitted to the polls to witness the count. When Dr. SMITH first arrived his papers were taken away from him and torn up. On going back the second time he was assaulted by SLUSHER, who was an officer or was at any rate.

SLUSHER was indicted for the offense, but the indictment was dismissed by Judge BARKER because of defects. Another true bill was returned, and after many long delays the case was brought to trial and the punishment fixed as stated.

BECKHAM, it will be remembered, proclaimed from the stump last year that he would pardon no man whom twelve good men had found guilty; but subsequent action shows conclusively that the "Governor" meant this to apply only to Republicans who were "suspected" of shooting General.

J. M. Beaton and Benjamin Fozell, his clerk, of Wamsley, near Manchester, were arrested upon the charge of attempting to burn the store of the former.

RIVER NEWS

THE BORDERS goes to Pomeroy to night.

While the river continues to fall, there is still a fine boating stage.

The Henry M. Stanley will be down from Charleston tomorrow.

Most of the fishpots which formed the cargo of the sunken barge Amazon have been recovered.

The Indians get up before breakfast, having arrived this morning at 6 o'clock resembling a huge cake of ice.

The steamer War Eagle, undergoing repairs at St. Louis, will soon be ready for the water. She has been renamed Cape Girardeau.

The river was full of new-made ice at this point this morning, and the gorges above have been greatly strengthened by the late cold weather.

John McKay is in Pittsburgh looking for a boat of the size and build of the Urania for the purpose of using her as a packet on a small river in Honduras.

Mrs. Lucy Ann Cooper died at her home in Robertson county Thursday, aged 75. Just seven weeks ago her husband died.

George W. Goodhue, one of Cincinnati's most prominent retired merchants, died Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William L. Dickson, in Avondale, aged 80. Mr. Goodhue was born in Steuben county, N. Y., in 1818, and at the age of 11, with his father, floated down the river on a raft of lumber, stopping at Mt. Carmel. He remained there until he was 16, then went to Cincinnati, where he amassed an immense fortune in the manufacture of shoes.

HOLDS ITS GROUND.

This is Testimony From Everywhere as Well as Mayville.

Can this be so? Is it true? Are the facts as stated? These questions which every man and woman in Mayville are asking the tortures of backache asks as they read the published accounts in newspapers about medicines which claim to cure it. Whatever the conclusion arrived at they can't flinch from or disprove the following, for it took place in Mayville, and the experience is that of a citizen.

Mr. J. B. Roper, proprietor of the Inn and Restaurant 125 Market street, says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market Streets, do all that is claimed for them and do it promptly and thoroughly. From personal knowledge I heartily testify to their value and effectiveness."
